Racial Literacy Group
For the Helping Professionals

The Racial Literacy Group is a process group that engages helping professionals to become more attuned to complex racial dynamics. Racism is a structural arrangement intended to maintain the power of white supremacy. It is reinforced by interpersonal and intrapsychic racist ideology that we have all internalized to some degree. Internalized racial oppression, racialized sexual fantasies, racial identity concerns, colorism, and privilege corrupt our interpersonal connections.

We stand on the shoulders of organizers grounded in the principles of the Peoples Institute for Survival and Beyond, the Anti-Racist Alliance, and the Fellowship of Reconciliation Truth and Reparations Campaign. We incorporate our learning experiences into the Racial Literacy Group to provide helping professionals opportunities to examine how we collude with or resist racism in our work and our lives. We will share, experience, and dissect racial dilemmas in order to become more skillful at interrupting bias.

The Racial Literacy Group will have 19 sessions meeting bi-weekly from September 13, 2019 through May 22, 2020 from 2:00pm – 3:30pm.

Where: 25 Barrow Street, garden office, NY, NY 10014
Fee:    $85/session white-identified participants
          $50/session black-identified and other people of color
Our differentiated fees reflect our commitment to address historical racial inequity for services. Scholarships are available.

For further information:
Christine Schmidt, LCSW 718 398-1004 cschmidt535@gmail.com
Rudy Lucas, LCSW 917 656-8083 rudylucas@gmail.com
www.racialliteracygroups.com